Description

After meeting your private, professional guide at the Kusadasi pier, you will begin your full-day private shore excursion and head to the ancient city of Ephesus. Here you will explore this historic, fascinating destination with your private guide and marvel at the sights of the Odeon, the Upper Agora, the Fountain of Trajan, the Steam Baths of Scolastika, the Temple of Hadrian, and the impressive Library of Celsus, considered one of the most magnificent ruins from the ancient world. Your guide will bring these sites to life. The Grand Theater, where St. Paul preached to the Ephesians, was until recently still used for performances. Next you will set off to the ancient city of Miletus was one of the biggest cities in ancient Anatolia. Miletus is perhaps most famous for its great philosophers and architects, such as Thales, Anaksimandros, Hippodamos and Isidoros. Miletus is also famous for the Faustina Baths. Although it has not been restored or studied to the extent that Ephesus has, it is still an important look into the life of this ancient civilization. You will then visit the archeological site of Didyma, which is not an ancient city, but a sacred place of worship. Didyma's fame rests on the magnificent Temple of Apollo, a building of awesome scale whose proportions seem more in keeping with the gods than man. Building works in the name of Apollo were started in the eighth or seventh centuries B.C. The Persians, who attacked the area in 494 B.C., destroyed the temple. Alexander the Great helped in the rebuilding and the remains we see today are Hellenistic, dating from his times. In the temple's reconstruction, the original foundations were used but the size of the building was greatly increased. While in Didyma, you will have a traditional Turkish lunch. At the conclusion of your private cruise excursion you will return to Kusadasi along the same route taken in the morning.

Description

After meeting your specially trained professional guide on the Kusadasi pier, you will set out for your private Ephesus shore excursion. Of all the ancient cities mentioned in the New Testament that were visited by St. Paul, Ephesus is the only one that was also addressed in the Book of Revelation. Near the north gate is the Tomb of St. Luke. It is thought to be the foundation of an ancient temple that was later converted into a church. A bull's head carved in the doorjamb once led people to believe that this was the tomb of St. Luke, since the bull's head was an ancient symbol for him. Although it is not clear if he ever visited Ephesus in person, certainly his influence did. Visit the Great Theater, where Paul preached that gods made by human hands are not gods at all (Acts 19:26). This led to many of the citizens rising up violently. You will see the Temple of Serapis, built for Egyptian travelers in 2 A.D.; it was later converted into a Church dedicated to St. John. St.Paul returned to Ephesus in 40 A.D. with the Virgin Mary. It is believed that they both lived here until their deaths. Before leaving the city, you will walk to the area that was once the harbor. Here, you will view the remains of The Church of Mary, an ancient Christian cathedral dedicated to the Virgin Mary. It is believed that this is where Mary prayed during her final years. The same church is also known as one of the Seven Churches of the Apocalypse mentioned in Revelations. After exploring all the fascinating Biblical sites, your private Ephesus shore excursion includes lunch at a nearby restaurant, where you will enjoy many local favorites. After lunch, you will pass the one lone pillar that is all that remains of The Temple of Artemis (550 B. C. - 401 A. D.), one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. The final stop is at the Basilica of St. John. It is generally agreed that he died in the area of Ephesus of natural causes around 100 A.D. and was buried on Ayasuluk hill under a simple marker.

Description

In the Old City you will visit the Istanbul Archaeology Museum is a group of three Archaeology museums located near Topkapi Palace and they houses over one million objects that represent almost all of the eras and civilizations in world history. The Archaeology Museum architect was the Levantine Alexandre Vallaury. The facade of the building was inspired by the famous Alexander Sarcophagus and the Sarcophagus of the Mourning Women from the excavations of Sidon by Hamdi Bey and Demostene Bey Baltazzi and which are the highlights housed inside the Museum. The Museum is one of the prominent structures built in the neo classical style in Istanbul. The Underground Cistern, the largest of the many underground cisterns built during the Byzantine Empire to supply the city with water. This cistern is especially fascinating because the Byzantine builders recycled many stone structures—capital heads and columns—that had been used in earlier temples. Now an upside down Medusa stares out at us from her watery home. Continue with the visit of Byzantine Hippodrome. It had a capacity for 100,000 spectators, while the horse racing and chariot racing that here offered an opulent spectacle. You will admire the Kaiser's German fountain, the bronze Serpent Column of Delphi, the Egyptian Obelisk and the Walled Obelisk of Constantine VII. After a short walk, you will reach the Ibrahim Pasa Palace and visit its fine collection of art and ethnography in a lovely setting. It was built in the 16th century and donated to Grand Vizier Ibrahim Pasha by the great sultan Soliman the Magnificent. You will end your tour with a trip to the exotic Grand Bazaar area. Unique moment: During the visit of the Grand Bazaar we will be experiencing Turkish coffee from Sark Kahvesi, historical coffee roasters located in the Grand Bazaar. Each variety has been prepared with a blend of traditional knowledge, experience and an abiding "Love of Coffee"

After free time in the Bazaar, you will be returned to the pier.

Description

Meet your professionally-trained tour guide and begin with a short orientation drive through the modern city of Istanbul. Continue to Dolmabahce Palace. The palace represents a period in time when Ottoman traditional architectural style was ignored for the more western patterns being used elsewhere in Europe. The palace, which consists of 285 rooms, 46 halls, four grand salons, six galleries and six baths is divided into two sections: the Ceremonial Section - where the sultan would receive distinguished guests from all over the world, and the Harem - where the Sultan's wife, mother and concubines lived. After this exciting visit, you will stop at the Ciragan Palace Hotel for a Turkish tea break. This 5-star luxury Imperial Palace hotel, lovingly restored and ideally located on the shores of the magnificent Bosphorus, provides a one of a kind experience with its historical ambiance, luxurious facilities and impeccable service. After tea, you will visit the Palace section. When Sultan Abdulaziz came to throne in 1861, Cirağan Palace was built with a bridge connected to the Yildiz Palace, which is located behind it. For centuries, the palace has always been one of the most precious buildings enriching the shores of the Bosphorus. The columns of the palace are the most beautiful examples of stone work. Besides precious carpets and furniture, there are rooms decorated by handwork covered by golden gloss and mother-of-pearl. The front walls of the palace made up of colorful marbles also add vividness to its architecture. The palace is used for private and public events so the rooms viewed will not be known until the day of the tour. After your visit to the palace building, you will return to the pier.

Description

After meeting your professionally trained guide, you will take a short drive to Taksim Square, the heart of modern Istanbul. The square was laid out in the late 1800's near a Taksim (branching-point) in the city's water distribution system. At the southern end of the square is a statue of the founder of modern day Turkey, Kemal Atatürk. Walking to the far side of the square you come to the beginning of Istiklal Caddesi (Independence Avenue) which is the main artery of the Beyoglu district. Now a pedestrian way, it is the city's most popular strolling, shopping and meeting street. Many of the buildings date back to the 19th-century when this area was referred to as the Paris of the East, with its half-European, half-Asian culture. The store fronts are lined with boutiques, cafes, consulates, restaurants, galleries, cinemas and banks, with residential apartments above. During your walk, you will visit one of the many wine houses where you will have the opportunity to taste a glass of local wine. There are two churches on the street. St Maria Draperis and the Italian church St. Antoine which dates back to 1906 and is the most important Catholic church of Istanbul. Halfway along Istiklal Caddesi is Galatasaray Square, named after the Galata Palace, the first official European-influenced high school in the Ottoman Empire. Other sites you will see in this area include the Galatasaray Bath, which dates back to 1482, I Ek Pasaj - the flower passage, Pera Palas, which is one of the oldest hotels in Istanbul, and the Nostalgic Istiklal Caddesi Tram, a 19th-century tram that was restored and placed back into service when the street became a pedestrian street. At the end of Istiklal Street, is the area called Tunel, where French engineers built Istanbul's Tunel underground train in 1875. It allowed European diplomats and businessmen to ride between their waterside offices in Karakoy and their hilltop residences in Beyoglu. It was only the third underground railway built in the world at that time. The final stop on the tour is the exotic Grand Bazaar area where you will have the opportunity for exploring some of the 4,000 shops. Unique moment: During the visit of the Grand Bazaar we will be experiencing Turkish coffee from Sark Kahvesi, historical coffee roasters located in the Grand Bazaar.
